

Language and Mind

Autumn 2013 - Tuesday 2-4pm

ArtsOne 1.28

Instructor: Linnaea Stockall
Office: ArtsOne 1.10
Email: l.stockall@qmul.ac.uk
Office Hours: <http://webpace.qmul.ac.uk/lstockall/#calendar>
TA: Fryni Panayidou
Office: ArtsOne 1.21
Office Hours: Tuesday 10-12am

Readings

Readings will be made available on QMPlus. Students are responsible for downloading all readings and ensuring they have the software required to read and print pdf files. Students are expected to bring a copy of the readings to class to refer to in discussion.

Assessments

All written work must be uploaded to QMPlus. The QMPlus upload will constitute the definitive timestamp. For uploaded files, only pdf files will count - no .doc or .docx files under any circumstances.

assignment	number	percent	due date
1. quizzes	4	20	weekly until 29.10.13
2. mid term test	1	20	29.10.13
3. critical responses + peer feedback	4	40	weekly until 3.12.13
4. revised response paper	1	20	13.12.12

Quizzes & Mid Term Test [40% of mark]

QUIZZES There will be an online quiz to complete every week for the first half of the semester (4 quizzes total). Each quiz is worth 5% of your mark.

TEST There will be an in class mid term test on October 29th, drawing from all the material we have covered to that time (including readings). The test is worth 20% of your mark.

Critical Writing Assignments [60% of mark]

WEEK.RESP Students must submit a short (500 word) critical summary and response to each of the assigned readings in the second half of the term. Then each student must provide anonymous feedback on the critical summary/response of another student. Each response is worth 5% of your mark, and each feedback response is worth 5% of your mark.

ESSAY Chose one of the weekly responses and develop into a longer response (1000 words). Submit the original, the peer feedback you received, and the final piece. Worth 20% of your mark. Details about the format and content will be provided.

Extensions/Late Work

If you are unable to meet an assessed coursework deadline owing to extenuating circumstances you may apply for an extension. This should be at least ONE WEEK in advance of the deadline. This applies even if a deadline falls at the very beginning of a semester. To apply for consideration of extenuating circumstances, complete the Extenuating Circumstances Form (http://www.sllf.qmul.ac.uk/ecform/SLLFecclaimform12_13.pdf), and email it to the relevant SLLF Senior Tutor. See the SLLF UG Student Handbook for details. http://www-dev.sllf.qmul.ac.uk/sites/default/files/U-G_Handbook_13-14.pdf

The reasons for the request must be explained by you in your form and should be accompanied by supporting documentation, e.g. a medical certificate or equivalent.

If you have missed a deadline owing to extenuating circumstances on the day of the deadline, you should contact the Senior Tutor as soon as you can. In such cases, it is acceptable to seek an extension after the event.

Extension of a deadline will ONLY be granted in cases of genuine extenuating circumstances; it is not an automatic right. You will not be granted an extension for foreseeable problems, such as conflicting deadlines, difficulty in obtaining books from the Library, or having to take paid work. Remember that, unless an extension has been agreed, a late essay will receive a mark of no more than 40% (a bare pass) if submitted within two weeks, and a mark of zero if submitted more than two weeks late.